Professional background of the expert determiner

Please let us know if there are any particular requirements you wish us to consider in nominating the expert determiner for example: (experience, qualification's, time restrictions).

(If there are no requirements please state none):

Conflict of Interest

RICS will take reasonable steps to ensure that the appointed expert determiner is free from conflict of interest and totally independent. The expert determiner is required to disclose any involvement to RICS prior to nomination. RICS will never knowingly nominate a expert determiner r who has a conflict of interest.

If in your view there are any individuals who would have a conflict of interest regarding this matter, you should list them in the box below. Please also provide for such person, brief but clear reasons for this statement.

Name	Firm	Reason

Please note: while RICS will give careful considerations to any representations the approver will reach their own decision as to who is appointed.

Expert determination fees

The expert determination fee covers RICS' administrative costs and the professional fee for undertaking the process. Each party will normally be expected to pay half of the expert determination fee. RICS will then recoup an administration fee from the expert determiner for any matter over £5,000.

Amount in dispute*	Expert determination fee
£5,000 or less	£400 (£200 x 2) + VAT
£5,000 - £25,000	£1000 (£500 x 2) + VAT
£25,000 to £100,000	£2,500 (£1,250 x 2) + VAT

* If a site visit is required, parties will bear any additional costs such as the expert determiner's reasonable travel costs etc. These costs (or the basis on which they will be calculated if costs are not available) will be made known to the parties and agreed prior to the site visit.
