

Register of RICS Accredited Mediators on the President's Panel

RICS Dispute Resolution Service maintains a register of RICS Accredited Mediators and RICS Accredited Evaluative Mediators who are on the President's Panel of Mediators. This means that they have satisfied the criteria for inclusion on the President's Panel, passed the panel assessment interview and are therefore eligible to receive appointment/nominations as mediators when such requests are received by RICS.

The names appearing on this register are mediators who have successfully completed:

- RICS Accredited Mediation training and assessment, and
- The assessment interview for President's Panel of Mediators

The register also includes names of RICS Accredited Evaluative Mediators. RICS Accredited Evaluative Mediators can use their expertise to guide the parties. For example, they can provide neutral evaluation, if considered appropriate, as to the prospects of success in court or arbitration based on the evidence revealed to the mediator and help the parties to achieve an outcome based on wider commercial as well as narrow legal grounds. For further information about evaluative mediation please visit Dispute Resolution Service \(DRS\) \(rics.org\) In most cases, mediators who became accredited in or after autumn 2018 completed the RICS Evaluative Training. If parties are looking for an Evaluative Mediator, they are advised to make enquiries directly with the mediator and ask them to confirm whether they undertook the RICS Evaluative Training and are able to provide neutral evaluation if required.

Disclaimer: RICS makes no representation or warranty as to the suitability or professional competence of mediators on the Register of RICS Accredited Mediators, beyond the fact that these individuals have duly obtained accredited status. Where parties wish to use this register to source a mediator, they are advised to make further enquiries with the mediator to ensure the mediator has the experience and skills required. Parties should obtain a current CV and references from the mediator directly.

For parties that require the President of RICS to make an appointment, please contact DRS on 020 7334 3806 or drs@rics.org; or submit an application form available on Dispute Resolution application forms \(rics.org\)
